Policy on “Prevention of Sexual Harassment”

ACC's Prevention of Sexual Harassment Policy is in alignment with the Group's Prevention of Sexual Harassment Policy.

- 1.0 Context: Increasingly, across the globe, there is a large focus on the Social Responsibilities of Organisations and their employees. There is a clear emphasis on preserving and enhancing the dignity of the individual. Equally, there has been a consensus that sexual harassment of women in organisations is a basic assault on the dignity of women and strong actions need to be taken to ensure that this is prevented and eradicated in all organisations. In India the Supreme Court in its Vishakha judgment laid down the guidelines to be followed in such cases, which were then incorporated into the "The Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, 2013" (the Act). The Adani Group concurs with the worldview on this aspect and this policy has been crafted with that in mind.
- 2.0 Scope: The policy follows the universal practice of explaining sexual harassment and is specifically applicable to any instance of harassment of women at the workplace, or in the case of an employee outside the workplace regardless of who was involved in the act.
