EDITOR'S SYNOPSIS

- ACC and Adani Foundation provide timely and effective medical care for rural communities of villages in Bilaspur, Chhattisgarh, through Mobile Health Unit (MHU).
- The MHU has reached 16 villages, 13 panchayats, benefiting over 7,400 residents with essential healthcare services.
- As part of the initiative, eye check-up camps were also organised in five villages, providing free eye care to 972 patients and screening 168 school children for eye flu.

Chhattisgarh, 13 June 2024: ACC Limited, the cement and building material company of the diversified Adani Portfolio, is committed to delivering essential healthcare services for rural communities where it operates. ACC along with Adani Foundation, is making a significant impact on rural healthcare through the Mobile Health Unit (MHU) initiative for villages around the ACC Chilhati site in Masturi tehsil of Bilaspur, Chhattisgarh. This programme has so far provided vital medical services to 13 panchayats, covering 16 villages, and benefiting over 7,400 residents with essential healthcare services.

The MHU covers a vicinity of up to 20 km from its centre, visiting 2-3 villages daily. Through this initiative, 471 of the total beneficiaries have been diagnosed with high blood pressure, and 290 with diabetes, highlighting the program's effectiveness in identifying and addressing various critical health issues.

Maintaining high standards of treatment, the MHU has proved essential for precise diagnosis and treatment of health issues, especially for those patients who have not been able to receive adequate treatment from their local primary health centre (PHC).

Further, under the healthcare initiative, the CSR team also organised an eye check-up camp across Bhurkunda, Godadih, Bohardih, Loharsi, and Vidhiyadih villages. The camp provided free eye care services, including check-ups, glasses, and treatments, benefiting 972 patients, while also screening and treating 168 primary school students for eye flu. This initiative has been carried out in conjunction with HelpAge India.

ACC and Adani Foundation are fostering healthier lives with the MHU, highlighting their commitment to bringing essential healthcare to rural and remote areas, by addressing the needs of underserved communities.
