LafargeHolcim increases stake in Indian companies

LafargeHolcim announces that its subsidiary Holderind Investments Ltd. has increased its shareholding in Ambuja Cement Ltd. (Ambuja) by 39,100,000 shares to 1,253,156,361 shares (63.11 percent of total Ambuja shares) and in ACC Limited (ACC), a subsidiary of Ambuja, by 7,870,000 shares to 8,411,000 shares (4.48 percent of total ACC shares).

The purchase price will be paid in INR. The impact on LafargeHolcim's net debt is CHF 325 million. This investment was not included in the Group's net debt objective of around CHF 13 billion at the end of 2016 which should be adjusted accordingly.

India is one of LafargeHolcim's key markets with very solid long term fundamentals and a clear potential for further improvement in business performance. These share purchases further increase the Group's interest in its two strong companies which constitute a solid platform from which to capture future growth.
